

Installation manual R40 rail

Cutting Advice

Please note, when cutting down rails to the required length: This should be always done at the end which will be covered with an end cap or corner connector and under no circumstances at the end which will be attached to another rail.

Installation Video

newlyⁿ
CONNECTING ART